Enjoy the range of art on display at diversARTy

Our annual exhibition of work by the participants and tutors of Living & Learning Nillumbik will be on display at the Eltham Library from 22 November to 10 December. The exhibition opening is on Sunday 24 November at 2pm, everyone is welcome.

The artworks celebrate the diversity of activities and abilities of the people who come together to share, learn and connect at Living & Learning Nillumbik.

Come and marvel at the talent of our local community.

On the Hill Festival, 28 October

We will be running two events at this festival:

Made on the Hill

This exhibition will feature art and craft creations. Our theme this year is In my backyard.

Anyone who has a connection with Panton Hill and surrounds can enter.

Prizes to be won. Go to our website to enter.

Makers Market

Our Makers Market will sell unique, handmade wares, designed and created with love.

Learning changes lives

Adult Learners Week is September 1 to 8 and is an international celebration of lifelong and lifewide learning. Learning as an adult can help people turn their lives around and can be a transformative and happy experience. Lifelong learners are adults who want to continually expand their skills, knowledge and interests.

We are proud to support and teach students of any age. As one of our recent students said:

"I never thought I would return to formal studies. The course has symbolised the rebirth of the learning process for me. Why did I wait so long?"

Check out our short courses, qualification courses and activities for adults on our web site.

Be Connected

This program helps seniors learn about the internet. It assists with computer and digital technology issues while building social connections. Digital mentors provide tuition one-on-one or in small groups.

We are seeking volunteer mentors to expand the program as bookings increase. For more information call 9433 3744.
